

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 15.

Whilst the effect of the recent elections will be still further to induce "a sober second thought," among the masses of the North, and cause a pause in the course of many who have hitherto submitted to the dictation of the leaders, it is quite probable that with the most ultra of these leaders themselves, who are fully committed upon extreme measures, the reverse will ensue, and that they may, indeed, become more violent than ever. We are prepared in some degree, for this; for tyrannical power when afraid of losing its hold, always struggles harder to retain its authority, and often resorts to the most desperate means to accomplish its purposes. The hope is, that these leaders may fail for want of a sufficient number of supporters. The rank and file, who have something to gain, by a timely change of policy, may not be willing to be marched up to the "imminent deadly breach," to be sacrificed politically, merely because the leaders wish them to do so. We may, therefore, see in the ensuing session of Congress, efforts made to "out Herod Herod" in Radicalism. The strength is in Congress. But every such attempt, even if successful now, will be sure, in the end, to increase the public feeling and heighten the public judgment against the Radical party.

It is stated that letters have been received in Washington from Thaddeus Stevens, in which he declares his intention to urge upon Congress in November two additional Radical measures. The first is a general impeachment law defining the offences upon which an officer may be impeached, and expressly declaring that no officer shall continue to exercise the power of his office during his trial. The second law will provide that "under the authority of the Constitution, and upon the principles of the Declaration of Independence, no State shall have power to prohibit citizens of the United States, whatever their race, color or religion, from voting for President or Congressmen." This law will establish colored suffrage in every State, no matter whether the people want it or not. Stevens, it is said, is to continue his Dictatorship, and urge these and other extreme projects upon the reluctant Radicals in Congress, and will be warmly supported by some of his followers.

There is now a prospect of the close of the threatened general Indian War, in the far West. Mr. Murphy, the superintendent of Indian Affairs, writes from Medicine Lodge, under date of the 21 of this month, that he finds the Indians all anxious for peace. He adds: "I have considerable trouble in getting communication with the Cheyennes, but have succeeded. They promise that no more war parties shall go out, and agree to meet the Commissioners. Can now safely say the Arapahoes, Cheyennes, Apaches, Kiowas, and Camanches will be fully represented here at grand council. There are large numbers of these Indians here now, and others are coming in as fast as they can."

The Legislature of Tennessee has laid before it resolutions for impeachment—for nomination of Gen. Grant as President—for a reduction of the tax on cotton—for assuming the claims of "loyal" citizens for damages during the war &c., &c. The Memphis Insurance National Bank, which borrowed the school fund, shows small chance of recovering a balance due of $400,000.

Chief Justice Chase has returned to Washington from Ohio. He goes to Baltimore today, to hear a case upon a writ of habeas corpus allowed some weeks since, returnable October 15th, to bring before him a colored person alleged to be detained illegally under the apprentice laws of Maryland, which are said to be in violation of the civil rights act of Congress.

It is generally admitted that Mr. Roger A. Pryor's views on "the situation," are of very little consequence, and his advice of very little importance to the people of Virginia. Having "subsided" he ought to stay "subsided."

Several of the Radical Northern papers are indignant at the Radicals in Ohio, for not sustaining the colored suffrage amendment. But the Ohio Radicals reply—"Wait, your time comes next."

The Washington Chronicle has another article on the "Maryland mischief"—this time, complaining of the parade which is to take place in Baltimore to-day, it being "muster day!"

The Washington Chronicle says that Hayes, of Ohio, the Radical candidate for Governor, has "quite a handsome little majority."—Thankful for small favors!

A dispatch from Montgomery, Ala., announces that Gen. Pope has been summoned to Washington, and will leave Atlanta within a week.

Gen. Frank P. Blair is spoken of as probably to be the successor of Gen. Grant in the War Office—but his selection is said not to be certain.

Putnam county, West Virginia, has voted a subscription of three hundred thousand dollars to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

Ex-Secretary Stanton has gone to Ohio.—There he should rest.—"Rest, perturbed spirit, rest!"

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

On Sunday, in a church in Canton, Ohio, Ferdinand Hoffman, recently discharged from the penitentiary, approached a young woman, who was some time since divorced from him, and demanded a kiss, and while she was in the act of complying, he drew a large butcher knife and plunged it into her person several times, inflicting fatal wounds. He then fled, pursued by an excited crowd, and upon being arrested was with great difficulty, saved from summary execution by the enraged populace.

The St. Louis Dispatch learns that application will be made to the U. S. Supreme Court for a mandamus to compel the Treasurer of Missouri to pay the interest due on certain State bonds out of money now in the treasury. In the U. S. Court judgment by default was rendered in favor of W. S. Alley, of New York, against the city of Hannibal, Missouri, for one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, for bonds issued by Hannibal in behalf of the Pike County (Illinois) railroad.

The U. S. Marshal has made another raid upon the illegal distilleries near Philadelphia, and captured sixteen stills. The U. S. soldiers present with the Marshal, overawed those who were disposed to make a disturbance, and prevented a riot.

Gen. Sickles' court of inquiry will not be granted. It is argued that he has already had his hearing in the mode selected by himself—by the publication of his correspondence with General Grant, and his own expose of facts as he understood them.

Dr. Stillman Ives died in New York on Sunday. He was at the head of the Catholic Protective Orphan Asylum at Westchester, New York. He was formerly Episcopal Bishop of North Carolina.

A break in the levee on the Mississippi, three days ago, eighteen miles above New Orleans, is doing great damage, and some fear is expressed that the country will be inundated for miles around.

Some conscience stricken individual has sent from Urbana, Ohio, to the Treasury Department notes and bonds to the amount of nineteen thousand five hundred dollars, without any explanation whatsoever.

The Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives yesterday began its investigation concerning Maryland's form of government. Francis Thomas is chairman of the sub-committee.

The yellow fever is abating in New Orleans. The number of fever interments to six o'clock on Sunday morning was thirty-two, and yesterday thirty-three. The weather is cool.

A Castine, Maine, fishing vessel was wrecked on the coast of New Brunswick on Monday last. The captain and crew, seventeen in number, were drowned.

The newspapers report a "secession" in the family of Senator Sumner, on some of the grounds taken by the South in its late conflict with the North.

Returns to Gen. Mower's headquarters show that a State convention is called by more than 10,000 majority in Louisiana. The returns are nearly in.

Mutilated National bank notes must be presented for redemption to the bank of issue, and by the bank to the Treasury Department.

The fever is severe at Victoria, in Texas. Major Lathrop, commanding the post, died on the 9th instant, with eleven others.

John B. Gough is fifty years old and twenty-five years sober; he delivered "Fact and Fiction" in Philadelphia last week.

The Pacific railway directors, it is reported, have resolved to use petroleum as a fuel for their locomotives.

The Italian Opera in New York is most successful this season.

It is said A. T. Stewart intends founding a great public library in New York.

The Grand Jury in New Orleans is composed of half blacks and half whites.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Dr. Charles Irving, an old resident, and late major in the 1st Virginia cavalry, has been nominated for the convention by the Conservatives of Amelia county, and John C. Woodson and Jacob N. Liggett, prominent members of the bar, as Conservatives in Rockingham.

A card will be published in Richmond by "moderate Republicans," cautioning parties against pledging themselves to support the Radical ticket nominated yesterday, as "intelligent respectable candidates will be nominated at once."

Eight hundred head of cattle from Texas reached Lynchburg within a day or two past by the cars of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad.

Gen. Schofield returned to Richmond yesterday. His visit to the capital will not change the plan of reconstruction in this State.

The Conservatives in Richmond intend holding a meeting to nominate candidates for the city and county during this week.

CREDIT MOBILIER. "This famous French engine of speculation is threatened with collapse. Established ostensibly to furnish capital for important business enterprises, its shares have been subject to the most extraordinary fluctuations. Its capital stock was originally 60,000,000 francs, par value 500. Subsequently the stock was doubled, and at times of active speculation the shares have changed hands at 1892, while they have sold as low as 300. Its directors have been of late making somewhat reckless advances, and unless the Bank of France comes to the rescue, which it is little inclined to do, it may fail.—Washington Express.

Cotton is "a gay deceiver," says the Columbia (S. C.) Chronicle. "Down, down from fifty cents a pound," says the Chronicle, "to thirteen cents a pound." The Chronicle asks what it means, and proceeds to answer the question, as follows: "Simply that we have lost control of the staple of the world, and been deluded by the belief that all mankind depended on the South for what they wear and tear. No mistake ever was more grievous."

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S ESTATE.—An inventory of President Lincoln's estate, filed in the court of Sangamon county, Ill., on the 29th of November, 1866, shows that he had $79,482 invested in Government securities at the time of his death, which, with other sums, notes of hand, and real estate in his possession, would swell the amount of his property to $85,000. This, with the $25,000 voted his widow by Congress, makes the total lost up $110,000.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The continued agitation in Italy, and the determined disposition evinced by the party of action to persist in its attempts at invading the Roman territory, causes much financial uneasiness in London and Paris.

The reform demonstration at the Crystal Palace, in London, on September 30th, was a failure. The Reform League held a meeting at St. James' Hall, on the 1st inst., and adopted an address of sympathy for Garibaldi.

The anxiety in England relating to the Fenian movements has been aggravated by several murderous assaults in London, and the Times urges the arming of the police. Three Manchester Fenians were captured at Liverpool after a stout resistance.

Immediately after the close of the Paris Exposition, (31st instant,) exhibitors are required to pack up and remove their products. No articles not so disposed of by the 30th of November will be transferred, by authority, to the public stores at Paris, at the expense and risk of contributors. Products or articles not removed from the public stores by the 30th of June, 1868, will be sold at public sale, and the net proceeds will be applied to charities.

RADICAL MOVEMENTS IN RICHMOND, VA.—The City Radical Convention met at Capitol Square yesterday, and was organized by electing James Hayes, (white), president. The names of the candidates nominated at the meeting on Saturday night, John W. Hummcutt, Judge John C. Underwood, and James Morrissey, (white), Lewis Lindsey, and John Cox, (blacks), were then separately announced and voted upon. The result was their unanimous nomination to the Convention. The meeting was one of the largest ever held on the Square. The greater portion of the colored population was present. Tobacco factories and other establishments where large numbers of colored people are employed, were compelled to close for the day to give them an opportunity to attend. There were fewer of the white population present than usual. It is said that the greater portion of the white people and moderate colored intend making other nominations; that they will not support the Hummcutt ticket. The ex-officers and soldiers' party did not take part in the convention, and will not support the ticket, but will nominate one of their own, thus splitting the party.

After the nominations were made, each nominee was called upon and signified acceptance, except Judge Underwood, who is absent from the city. Speeches were made of the prescriptive order, Morrissey, an Irishman, declaring that he would vote in the convention to disfranchise every foreigner that aided the rebellion; while Hummcutt favored not only disfranchising all foreigners, but also disfranchising all ministers of the Gospel and editors who advocated secession or rebellion. It was a gala day for the blacks and their wives.

CHOLERA PREVENTION.—Messrs. Appleton & Co. have recently published a pamphlet, bearing the title of "Cholera Prevention," which deserves to be read in every family in the country, and to receive the thoughtful attention of all organized sanitary authorities. Failing in the effort to cure, thoughtful physicians turned their attention to preventing the disease. This problem has, it is said, been solved, and the pamphlet to which we have referred shows how it was done. The author, Dr. Eliza Harris, of the New York Board of Health, who first introduced the system into this country, herein gives a summary of the evidence that led to the discovery and adoption of the method of controlling and preventing cholera by means of disinfection, and a description of those disinfectants which experience has proved to be best adapted to the warfare against this Asiatic pestilence. The entire book is free from merely scientific and technical phraseology, while at the same time it is remarkably exact and comprehensive in its statements. The rules laid down are plain and simple, and their value has been thoroughly tested. While cholera lingers in any place on the continent, there is danger to every other place, which can only be averted by such sanitary measures as are described in this unpretending, but exceedingly valuable little book.

SPEECH OF EX-PRESIDENT FRANKLIN PIERCE.—The White Rex to control the Convention.—Ex-President Franklin Pierce was serenaded at Concord, N. H., on Wednesday night, and said: I warn you, my friends, to note the fact that these triumphs, whatever they may be, are no party triumphs. The people have risen in their majesty, with a consciousness of their power and disregarding party lines and party aspiration, have been silently considering what belongs to them, their children and their country. I think the great battle has been fought and won. If the results are significant in nothing else, they are in this, that the white race—our race—the German, Italian, French, Irish, Scotch and Anglo-Saxon people are still to be the controlling power on this continent. It is for you now to remember your duties, your fidelity to principles, what you owe to your neighbors, whether they agree with you or not, and take care that the public weal suffer no detriment at your hands.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says, that whoever may be selected by the President as Secretary of War will be appointed "outright" as Secretary of War by E. M. Stanton, removed; "for it is the purpose of Mr. Johnson to make an absolute removal of Mr. Stanton under the law as it existed prior to the passage of the tenure office act, which is held by the administration to be unconstitutional. In this opinion Mr. Stanton concurred when the bill was passed, and himself prepared a portion of the veto message, denying the power of Congress to pass such an act. The removal of Mr. Stanton being accomplished in this manner the President will send his message to the Senate, nominating A. B. to be Secretary of War, vice Stanton, removed. By this means it is expected in case the nominee be rejected, that possibly Mr. Stanton may claim that he shall be reinstated, but being out of the office, he will be compelled to seek his legal remedy by mandamus, or any other mode, if there be any other pointed out by law. This will bring the question as to the constitutionality of the tenure of office act before the Supreme Court for adjudication, and by its decision the right of Mr. Stanton to hold the office will be decided."

The Workingwomen's Home, just opened in New York city, furnishes all the comforts of a first-class hotel at $3.25 per week including washing.
